URBAN NOISE

Urban Noise dB (Decibel) is part of the larger Urban Noise series.

This includes different outfits that execute the same theme (hoodie and $\frac{3}{4}$ pants) in different ways, essentially creating a mini streetwear wardrobe.

The main feature of this series is that all outfits are compatible texture-wise (they share the same UVs) which means that you can use any of the texture styles included with any of the outfits. You can mix and match them as you like.

This approach allows us to create a huge range of add-on styles which would be unjustified to create for an outfit alone.

You can decide to buy multiple outfits to mix and match (each outfit default styles will fit all the pieces), or you can buy a single outfit and multiple add-ons for a wide range of streetwear and futuristic styles.

Simply pick what you need and like as everything is compatible!
